NEW SINGLE AVAILABLE NOW!

Not only has Edgar played for Rhonda Vincent & the Rage, Marty Raybon & Full Circle AND Illrd Tyme Out, but most recently had monumental success with the duo Adkins & Loudermilk. Edgar wrote or co-wrote the majority of the music that topped and still remains on the Bluegrass charts from the latest release with A&L. He is heavily played all over Bluegrass Radio, and has been a "Most Played" Sirius Bluegrass Radio musician since his start. It seems nothing he touches musically can go wrong! He has certainly proven himself in the industry as an adept and proficient singer-songwriter with 2 successful solo releases behind him, the A&L release and now the "Georgia Maple" release on the horizon. The future looks bright for the Edgar Loudermilk Band, proudly featuring Jeff Autry.

Jeff's album, "Foothills", also released on Pinecastle Records, will also be re-released this Spring. Jeff has been in the music industry for over twenty years now, doing stints early on with the Lynn Morris Band, The Bluegrass Cardinals and the Larry Stephenson Band. Later on, as a freelance guitarist, he performed on stages across the USA and abroad with the likes of Sam Bush, Peter Rowan, Tim O'brien, Darrell Scott, Bela Fleck, The Travelin' McCoury's, Yonder Mountain String Band and Keller Williams. Most recently, Jeff was the guitarist for the ever acrobatic, multi-genre musical styles of the John Cowan Band for past 14 yrs.

Edgar's incredibly talented former A&L bandmates, Jeff Autry, Glen Crain and Zack Autry, all complete his current band. They have recently completed recording Edgar's next album, titled "Georgia Maple" due out in July 2016. The first single, "My Kentucky Home", penned by Loudermilk, was released this past February already earning significant airplay and notice from Bluegrass Radio contributing to the increasing momentum over the upcoming "Georgia Maple" album release.

2016-2017 is going to be nothing short of STELLAR. Our dates are booking fast as folks nationwide want to be a part of this Swift Enterprises sponsored tour!

Edgar is also hosting three new Festivals with his company, Edgar Loudermilk Music Productions, "Anderson County Halloween Booggrass Bash", "Bluegrass Farm Jam" in Alto, Georgia, and YAM JAM, in Pickens, SC, making it valuable for his bookings to receive constant reciprocal promotion, which we are ALL about!
